Hi Bernadette! I'm a DeepLearning.AI-certified prompt engineer who builds AI apps. Saw Cantina's AI personality role—my background crafting story-driven AI for nonprofits could be a great fit. Would love to connect!

Follow-Up Message (after connection accepted):

Hi Bernadette,

Thank you for connecting! I came across Cantina Labs' Prompt Engineer role and was immediately drawn to it.

I'm a DeepLearning.AI-certified prompt engineer and the founder of Live Yo Life, a nonprofit where I built "Glow Up Unbothered"—an AI mentorship app that delivers personalized, story-driven guidance to young women 24/7. I've also authored 7 books, so I understand deeply how to craft authentic, emotionally resonant narratives—which I see as critical to building realistic AI personalities.

I'd love to learn more about what Cantina is building and explore how my experience designing conversational AI could contribute.

Are you open to a quick chat this week?

Best,

Follow-Up Message:

Hi Apsey,

Thanks for connecting! I'm reaching out about Disney's Lead Prompt Engineer and Senior GenAI Platform roles.

I'm a DeepLearning.AI-certified prompt engineer with hands-on experience building end-to-end AI platforms:

- ✓ AI Mentorship App (Glow Up Unbothered) serving young women globally
- ✓ Author promo apps with automated content funnels
- ✓ 7-day AI website/app builds for high-impact leaders

Disney's mission to tell stories that inspire resonates deeply with me—I turned my own story (from illiteracy to published author + tech founder) into a platform that empowers others.

I'd love to discuss how my practical AI delivery experience could support Disney's GenAI initiatives.

Are you available for a brief conversation?

Best,

Nakiesha Scott
